EXPLORE LOGAN

The City of Logan teems with diversity, art, history, a hip and evolving food scene and adventure possibilities in a wild and beautiful natural environment.

Our 234 cultures have introduced customs, intriguing cuisine styles, produce and vibrancy to what is now a thriving municipality with its own unique identity. This famed melting pot has had time to settle in and get super creative; cross-pollinating across the rapidly emerging dining, cuisine and food culture landscape.

Like any contemporary city, the locals demand good coffee and gourmet food as well as authentic experiences. Local coffee roasters such as Extraction Artisan Coffee and Simply Beans bring industrial warehouse and urban cool to the cup and plate.

Small batch brewers and Tex-Mex purveyors will tickle your tastebuds; while all-you-can-eat Japanese Okami, Korean Bake It and the new Middle-Eastern Ishtar Restaurant offer authentic food that tastes like the origins of its fascinating, multicultural owners.

The Kingston Butter Factory Cultural Precinct is transforming the creative landscape in Logan. The historic butter factory is now a buzzing precinct for arts, culture and entertainment. The indoor Butterbox Theatre and massive outdoor stage host an annual program of music, dance, circus, theatre and community events featuring local and international artists alike.

The Living Museum of Logan showcases new exhibitions every 6–12 months. The latest Progression Playground: BMX Freestyle in Logan shines a light on the essence of the BMX freestyle scene from the early years to today's generation of riders. This Rider Owned – Rider Run ethos has allowed freestyle in Logan to be one of the world's most progressive playgrounds.

Logan has a strong and thriving cultural community. Learn the settler and pioneering stories in the quaint but picturesque heritage buildings across the region's mini-satellite museums such as Mayes Cottage and the Logan Village Museum.

Logan features 70% green space made up of rural and semi-rural parkland and environmental reserves. Home to an incredible diversity of native animals and plants is the city's range of natural areas including rainforests, bushland reserves, waterways and wetlands. The Logan and Albert Rivers form an integral and important part of the identity, cultural history and fabric of the city.

With more than 900 parks in which to relax, the City of Logan has seriously invested in outdoor infrastructure, with each park featuring its own style of facilities geared to different users. From skaters, BMX-ers, rollerskaters, horseriders, mountain bikers, kayakers, watersports fanatics, children with disabilities, wildlife devotees, people who love fishing, hikers - you name it, it's all on offer.

If you want to access some fun why not head to Area 51, Australia's largest indoor entertainment centre; get on the water at Bayside Wakepark or some wheels at Skate Paradise. And of course it's not just a caffeine boost that Logan locals love, for thrills and spills adrenaline junkies can't go past Kingston Park Raceway.

Where else can you go fishing, set up picnic afterwards at a nearby park; visit koalas; rip-up an international skate park; hear Indigenous stories in local museums; attend global markets on par with their South-East Asian equivalents; and visit Australia's oldest rum distillery all a stone's throw of each other and all in the one easy day trip? Logan, that's where.

Please enjoy this comprehensive guide compiled to help you in planning your next day trip to the City of Logan. We can't wait to meet you!

RUM

BEENLEIGH ARTISAN DISTILLERY

Visit Australia's oldest registered distillery in Queensland. Tour the iconic Big Red Shed, learn about quality rum production, and taste a selection of their finest spirits. Enjoy delicious Tex Mex-inspired dishes from the brand-new distillery kitchen. Don't miss this unique experience!

142 DISTILLERY RD, EAGLEBY, 4207

AREA 51

This new entertainment venue is a fun-filled complex spread across 10,000 action packed square metres – a three-in-one centre where families can play, eat and learn. There is a trampoline park, sports courts, a flying fox 'aircoaster', a ninja course, bouldering walls, on-site café as well as kids and adult classes.

51 KINGSTON ST, UNDERWOOD, 4119

PLAY

KINGSTON BUTTER FACTORY CULTURAL PRECINCT

This revamped cultural precinct is where big ideas come to life with a year-round program of art and culture right in the heart of Logan. There's the Butterbox Theatre and outdoor stage, Living Museum of Logan, Logan City Historical Museum and the Devon Pixies Tea House cafe. Shop at the farmers' and twilight markets.

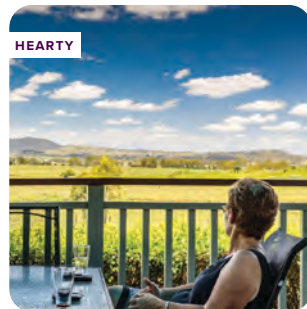

270 JACARANDA AVE, KINGSTON, 4114

CULTURE

COUNTRY PUBS

The Logan Village Hotel is all about genuine country pub hospitality with homestyle food and cold draught beer on tap. Like every good community pub there are trivia nights and karaoke. If you feel like more of an outdoorsy pub experience surrounded by Jacarandas, head to the Veresdale Hotel (The 'V') one of the oldest family hotels in South East Queensland with a pet-friendly beer garden.

HEARTY

HIT SOME TOP SHOPS

The secret to Logan retail is that the outlets represent the diversity of the region, from boutique crystal stores to open-air markets. Muse Crystals offers beautiful geological gifts like Fire Quartz and unusual items, including dandelion spheres and fertility spells. Muse has also recently opened a bath house, day spa and retreat. If you need everything in one spot, you'll find it at Logan Hyperdome with movies, food court and play area. Packed with all your favourite stores, head to Grand Plaza in Browns Plains for casual and relaxed retail therapy. Or why not explore some of Logan's diverse markets - think fresh produce, handmade items, unique gifts, mouth-watering food and baked items. There 's usually heaps of family fun and kid-friendly activities. Head to charming Jimboomba and explore some hidden retail gems before grabbing a bite to eat at Cafe on Cusack. Delish.

FOOD CULTURE

When cultural diversity combines with cuisine, you're in for a wild taste ride. The City of Logan is home to 234 cultures, bringing their version of delicious to the table: think fiery South-East Asian dishes, Middle Eastern pastries and high teas.

BEANS

CAFE CULTURE CULTURES

Cafe culture is alive and well in Logan. If you want unsurpassed bean quality (roasted onsite) matched with stellar food nous in an industrial warehouse vibe, then Extraction Artisan Coffee is a must-do on any day trip. Likewise, passionate coffee roasters Simply Beans pump-out top coffee brews from an unassuming but cosy locale in Underwood. For hearty, creative meals, St Coco in Daisy Hill is not-to-be-missed: spiced biscuit waffles or bratwurst benedict anyone? If you want cute, rustic charm along with delicious sweet treats and hearty dishes, follow the locals to Café on Cusack in Jimboomba. Head to Never Been in Underwood for big city design vibes and amazing food and coffee. At The Foxy in Loganholme, you'll see the line-up for coffee well before you see the place. It's a local hidden gem with good food too. Kivahan coffee roasters and cafe in Slacks Creek bring the finest organic Turkish coffee neighboring to the bustling motorbike and auto-hub in Moss Street.

COOL

DISTILLERY ROAD MARKET

This booming food and entertainment precinct is a destination not to miss! Open Thursday to Sunday, Sugar Creek Smokehouse serves up an authentic Aus-Tex style BBQ smoked meat experience that will blow your tastebuds. Keep your own personal international cuisine tour going by heading to Posadas Cantina for an authentic Mexican flavour fiesta. Finish with coffee bliss at Aussie-owned specialty coffee company Zarrafra's concept outlet – Kiwanda Café (open 7 days).
124 DISTILLERY RD, EAGLEBY, 4207

BEER

BARs, BREWS AND TUNES

Looking for a new place to hang out with your friends or a relaxed date night? Logan's bar and brewery scene is growing accompanied by excellent taverns and pubs. Tucked away in Daisy Hill is Christophers Fine Food and Wine. A hidden gem that lives up to its name, this south side institution is a wine and tapas bar as well. Or if it's time to hang out with your mates then check out Monte Ale House in Slacks Creek. This suburban bar boasts an industrial man cave vibe with walls lined with fishing rods, golf bags, retro signs, sports memorabilia plus fifteen beers on tap and live music on the weekends.

Nearby, Monkey Tree Brewing in Slacks Creek is a mecca for craft beer lovers with a liking for specialised brews free from preservatives. With 170 varieties of small-batch tipples, this is a boutique beer like no other. Or check out the award-winning new kid on the block - Perentie Brewing Co. at Distillery Road Market. Next door you will find the new Tequila Bar serving up an incredible selection of tequilas from around the world.

Looking for live entertainment? Check out the Logan Arts page for events happening at the Logan Entertainment Centre or for a low key NYC vibe head to Club Noir for jazz and other pop-up events.

SWEET TREATS

There's plenty of the sweet stuff in Logan if you're looking for sugary delights. Poppy's Chocolates is an institution, with its onsite factory and retail outlet featuring a mouth-watering array of chocolate goodies. Try to hold yourself back from Milk Chocolate Coated Freeze Dried Lychees, Passionfruit and White Chocolate Bark, or Rocky Road Cashew and Turkish Delight Milk Chocolate. If you're looking for traditional English morning or afternoon tea, scout no further than Devon Pixies, fittingly located at the Kingston Butter Factory Cultural Precinct – the perfect place for high tea. The team at Chouette have embraced the art of French pastry for more than a decade and have finally opened their first outpost in Underwood. This cosy boutique bakery oozes old-world charm with shelves full of colourful macarons, flaky croissants, brown butter-filled cookies and more.

DINE

FROM COLONIAL JIMBOOMBA TO SPRINGWOOD THAI

Jimboomba House Restaurant is housed in an 1845 homestead that was the Cobb & Co stagecoach depot. Perhaps in a nod to the colonial heritage, there are plenty of hearty 'country-sized' options on the menu as well as some cultural twists such as twice-cooked duck. Or maybe you're looking for some authentic Thai food? If so, then look no further than Thai Orchid in Springwood, where there is an abundance of quality vegetarian options and the locals swear by the crispy soft shell crab. This intimate award-winning dining option has friendly service and a low-key, comfortable vibe.

KINGSTON ROAD AND LOGAN CENTRAL

Kingston Road, from Underwood to Logan Central, or the 'Middle Eastern Mile' cements Logan's reputation as the multicultural food capital of Queensland. This area is full of authentic specialty eateries including Mandi Al Arabia and Baalbek Lebanese restaurants as well as the famed Sooo Sweet bakery. For amazing persian style bread check out Hamid Bakery or Erbil Bakery for an Iraqi twist. For a completely different cultural twist try the french inspired Chouette or if more sugar is required, hit up Brisbane Indian Sweets and Snacks. Pacific and Kiwi cravings can also be satisfied at local takeaways Sia's Takeaway or Taua's NZ Bakehouse.

SNACK

GEMS

SPRINGWOOD AND UNDERWOOD

Manok Park is a local favourite with a range of authentic regional Korean dishes located next to Ant Coffee offering sensational asian poke bowls and coffee. Continue venturing on your foodie journey in Underwood and head down the road to Mi Casa Café where you can find epic food and smoothies late into the night. If you want buffet dining head to Ariala's, Springwood. Great atmosphere and dining for big groups. For another all-you-can-eat experience with a Japanese twist try Shinbashi Yakiniku. Enjoy the fun and interactive dining experience of grilling your food on a barbecue plate. Or head down the road to Bufwin for an all-you-can-eat chicken wing buffet featuring 15 flavours.

"Global Food Markets has different varieties of produce according to the seasons and a range of delicious food. Find interesting items that you cannot find in a regular store!"

FUN IN THE SUN

The City of Logan's 900 parks offer an unexpected range of activities. From the unusual, animal-themed musical instruments and digital LED poles in Darlington Parklands to fitness equipment, water play, off-leash dog areas, trails and golf courses.

PARKS AND PARKLANDS

Riverdale Park features covered picnic tables set amongst expansive greenery, offering beautiful river views and fantastic walking paths. Its dinosaur-themed play area invites children to explore ancient creatures and tackle climbing challenges suitable for all ages. If you're seeking a park that sparks imaginations, provides an educational experience and has plenty of flora and fauna, visit Alexander Clark Park. Here, you can find a beautiful green space dotted with shady trees and a towering giant koala climbing tower at its centrepiece. This park features an all-abilities playground and a newly introduced sensory garden filled with plants that attract endangered birdsong and blue tiger butterflies. Springwood Conservation Park is a fitness mecca with 36 hectares of eucalypt forest. Tree aficionados and flora buffs will love the Planchons Stringybarks – one of only few places in Queensland where they can be found. From the viewing platforms along the walk, see majestic gum trees, impressive boulders, wildflowers, caves, cliffs and a deep gorge. Underwood Park features a pedal-powered monorail track, a flying fox and adventure playground. Logan Village Green has a new playground and skate park surrounded by collections of historical buildings and a museum displaying 150 years of history.

FAST AND CURIOUS 🚀

Logan's adventure experiences are many and varied. With outdoors in abundance and a thriving, young population the City of Logan region has its finger on the pulse of high adrenaline activities to get your heart pumping.

ACTION-PACKED

Bayside Wakepark is well-known for a reason. This family fun facility offers all kinds of watersports including kneeboarding, wakeboarding and wakeskating. There are snacks, cold beers and pre-mixes for refreshments. Kingston Park Raceway now has an entirely new fleet of Sodi SR5 Race Karts. Different levels of race experiences are available: including twin seat karts for everyone to feel the thrill of racing. If you want to freestyle it and hit some BMX trails, the Logan region has 12 BMX parks to choose from. In fact, Beenleigh plays host to Australia's first international-standard BMX freestyle and skate park. If you want to keep using your own muscle power to get moving then there is a huge range of recreational cycling paths elsewhere too. During your ride stop off at the work-out stations. Got a head for heights? Challenge yourself on Queensland's highest climbing wall at Core Climbing Cornubia.

MOUNTAIN BIKE RIDING

Daisy Hill Conservation Park is a world-class trail network 30 km from Brisbane that includes shared trails and designated mountain bike trails. There are family friendly tracks as well as single lane designated mountain bike trails. If you're craving a longer ride, Daisy Hill joins Cornubia Forest Park and other circuits. Plunkett Conservation Park is a scenic ride through eucalypt forests, lichen-covered boulders and wildflowers. Underwood Park includes an XC circuit, trials area, skills area, dirt pump track and BMX track. Check out Mad Max 3 and Mad Max Tech tracks. To learn more about mountain bike riding in Logan, head to www.explorelogan.com.au/mountainbikeriding

FOR THE KIDS

Shark and Ray Gardens in Cornubia is an interactive marine aquarium for all ages. Either sit and watch or wade into the shallow water to meet rays and sharks. For something a little bit slower, when the season is right, you can pick your own fresh strawberries at Chambers Flat Strawberry Farm! Or, chow down on fresh strawberries and ice-cream from the shop. If wildlife is your thing, then head to Daisy Hill Koala Centre, where you can meet and learn about our cuddly Aussie icons. Or if you need some indoor recreation, Area 51 is Australia's largest indoor family entertainment centre with indoor play, a sports centre and recreation area.

CANOE AND KAYAK TRAILS

The Logan and Albert Rivers weave through the region from their source at the World Heritage-listed Gondwana Rainforests in the Border Ranges. Many routes exist for canoes and kayaks whether paddling, fishing, for family fun or hardcore exercise. The City of Logan has handy trail info with options from 20 minutes to 2 hours long. Learn about the rich history of the rivers, plants and animals through Logan River Trail interpretative signage. Significant features include saltmarshes, the Red Bridge, koalas, and 200 bird species including almost all of the Australian Raptors.

"I regularly paddle on the Logan River and like the solitude the river offers! My tip is to watch the water flow at the edge of the boat ramp and paddle out against the flow."

— Mark Sanderson, Member of the Greater Logan Paddlers Club.

ART WITH HEART

The Living Museum of Logan shares the stories of the people who have made the City of Logan what it is today. The Logan Art Gallery celebrates the work of visual artists, designers and craftworkers.

STORY

LIVING MUSEUM OF LOGAN

This contemporary social history museum has changing exhibitions where you can see, hear and experience the stories of our diverse community through arts and cultural expression. Alongside these exhibitions is the co-curated First Nations space where visitors can learn about First Nations language and culture and digital stories from four significant Elders in Logan. Exhibitions at the Living Museum of Logan change every 6–12 months.

270 JACARANDA AVE, KINGSTON, 4114

ART

GALLERIES

Logan Art Gallery in Logan Central is well-regarded, with quality exhibitions showcasing local talent and beyond. The Gallery in the Corridor, Beenleigh is run by 18 local artists and housed in 5 rooms of Harry Saverin's weatherboard 1900s family home. Buy prints, wooden creations, pottery, paintings and craft. Run by arts professional volunteers Logan Artists Association has so many facilities for budding and established artists including: art and pottery studios, a gallery, stunning gardens, off-street parking – all only a short walk from Loganlea train station.

HERITAGE

MAYES COTTAGE

This historical cottage provides insight into early settler life with original furniture dating from the 1880s. John and Emily Mayes and their 2 small children, Joshua and Ruth, arrived in Brisbane from England aboard the ship Indus on 21 July 1871. This is a glimpse of early Logan living. The museum is open on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays (10.30am – 4.00pm). Great place to take a picnic.

20 MAWARRA ST, KINGSTON, 4114

TEMPLES

Logan's enviable cultural diversity brings with it many religions. The temples in Logan are divine spiritual hubs. The Chung Tian Temple in Priestdale is a sprawling but tranquil place where the community celebrates diversity and multi-faith harmony through Humanistic Buddhism. Tours, weddings, tea ceremonies, baby blessings, meditation, Buddhism and Chinese classes are offered.

Wat Thai Buddharam (Forestdale) with its traditional ornate temple fence and clean lines mirrors traditional northern Thai temples. Meditation and managing stress classes are offered. The Sri Selva Vinayaka (Ganesh) Temple in South Maclean is a stunning Tamil temple filled with festivities, worship, processions, and cultural performances.

LOGAN VILLAGE MUSEUM

With 4 historic buildings half of which are heritage listed, this is a glimpse into the past. The former Fettlers Cottage displays Indigenous, settler and pioneer history. ANZAC and Camp Cable history is housed in the newest of buildings: Pioneer Hall. There is also the Dance Hall, original to Logan Village and the Railway Hut with lots of displays to discover. Visit the Doo Drop Inn Craft Cottage for a collection of homemade items.

1-5 RIVER ST, LOGAN VILLAGE, 4207

HOME

BEENLEIGH HISTORICAL VILLAGE AND MUSEUM

Featuring 20 historical buildings, the Beenleigh Historical Village and Museum is a bustling destination for all ages. See the old St. George Anglican Church, Beenleigh Council Chambers, Willkie's General Store, old Dodge fire engines, Loganholme One Teacher School and the Post Office. For a taste of history, book a billy tea and damper experience while you are there.

205 MAIN ST, BEENLEIGH, 4207

RUSTIC

"Logan's arts and cultural sector is going from strength to strength. From the debut film festival, Underdog Film Fest, to Logan's first visual arts competition, the Australian Artist Awards. There is something for every culture-lover in our city."

– All Strachan, President of Assorted Grains Inc.
